I am looking forward to being back with you on Sunday. After a week in isolation, it will be a blessing to be back in the pulpit. My message will continue our journey through the life of Jesus. I encourage you to read Jesus' Parable of the Lost Coin (Luke 15:1-7) in preparation for Sunday.

As you will read elsewhere in this newsletter, we are encouraging everyone to make Holy Week a week of prayer. I have begun writing a series of devotions that will be available each day of Holy Week in the church chapel to enrich that experience. I hope you will make quiet time in the chapel a special part of your Holy Week this year.

Thank you for all your thoughts and prayers. There have been a few speed bumps along the way, but all in all my cancer treatments seem to be going well. We've been truly blessed by the power of your prayers!

Holy Week Prayer Vigil

Starting on Palm Sunday, March 20, and continuing through Good Friday, March 25, we will be holding a prayer vigil in the chapel. Hours will be Sunday, March 20, from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m., and Monday, March 21 through Good Friday, March 25, from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

What a powerful witness for our church if we could each spend at least 30 minutes sometime each day in the chapel to quiet our minds and feel God's presence in our busy lives.

There are many people who need our prayers at this time, including many in our own church. Sign up sheets are posted by the office, or you can sign up on the Connect card enclosed with the bulletin. Consider joining us in this prayer vigil as we ready our hearts and minds for the wonderful Easter resurrection message.
