In Memoriam

death's losing battle

death is not the champion
it images itself
to be.
it is the enemy,
to be sure,
and it is still active,
but not for
much longer.
death is dying
and has been dying
since the day
that jesus arose.
some day soon
death will be less than the dimmiest of memories.

Community Class Coming Up Soon -

Explore Alaska and the Yukon Basin led by the Walrath's Tuesday, October 30 at 6:00 p.m.

Have you ever wanted to see Alaska and all of its beauty? Well, Loree and Dennis did just that, and will use a power point presentation to acquaint you with the many wonderful experiences they had and to inspire you to travel to Alaska. Unusual experiences will be added to enhance the fun. Please join them on this journey to see beautiful scenery, all kinds of animals, and train and bus rides through many almost unsettled landscapes.

We need your help!

The UMM needs pies for the chili supper.
Please bring a pie or 2 to the church by noon on November 15. Thanks for your help!

Attention Youth and Children! This Sunday, October 28 is the Family Bonfire at Gus and Susie Wetzels Cabin. Make plans to come out and have a great time with good people!

Just a Reminder -

We will be observing All Saints Day on October 28. We will remember all of those who have died this past year and honor them by dedicating a book to the library in their memory.

Linda Wareham, Steve Cummings,
Cheryl Sites and Shelby Woods

Let us remember our world's leaders in our prayers.
