time trap

time cannot be trusted
she steals
our moments
and feasts on them
while we wonder
where they went
time cannot be trusted
she hides
our days
in a haze of hurry
while we lament
their passing.
do not trust this vile thief
place your trust
all of it
in the one who is
beyond our time
and who breathes life
into every second.

The Annual Festival of Sharing is one of the great mission projects of the churches in our area. Each year the Festival of Sharing is held on the 3rd Saturday of October (the 20th this year) in Sedalia at the Fair Grounds. It is a great day of love and faith in action. If you can be there you will be inspired. Our projects this year include buying pigs for Haiti and seeds for Appalachia. Our goal is $5,000. Write out a check made to the church and mark it Festival of Sharing to insure that your gift gets to the right people. We need donations by Sunday, October 14. On that day, also, the children will bring the blue piggy banks and we will dedicate their gifts and return their pigs. Do what you can to make this mission a great success.

The first Tuesday of each month a group gathers to go visit our homebound members. We divide up the names and go take a word of cheer to those whose lives have considerably slowed down. They look forward to seeing their monthly visitors. We need more visitors! To be a part of this group takes a commitment of about an hour each month. Please come and share your love with our homebounds. We meet at 1:00 on the first Tuesday of each month in room 110 for our assignments.

It's that time of year again! Christmas Cheer is coming soon and as always volunteers are needed.
