sing joy!

when darkness
cold and constant
becomes the death of hope
and the dawn
seems but a faint reprieve,
sing joy!
when life
fleeting and flawed
is crushed by cruel calamity
and punishing pain,
sing joy!
god cried out creation
as the stars sang joy.
god plied the plumb line
across the sky
as the angels sang joy.
resounding joy cascades
from celestial heights
to terrestrial depths
calling you to sample its song.
sing joy!

Be An Evangelist

There are many reasons why people come to church - some are good, some not so good. We should come to church to enrich our relationship with Christ. There are those who know this, it's just that they don't think about it much. That's where you come in. Most people get started in church or return to church because a friend made an invitation. Ask someone to join you in worship. Be an evangelist for Christ. It won't hurt and it will probably help - you, them and the church.

The first Tuesday of each month a group gathers to go visit our homebound members. We divide up the names and go take a word of cheer to those whose lives have considerably slowed down. They look forward to seeing their monthly visitors. We need more visitors!

To be a part of this group takes a commitment of about an hour each month. Please come and share your love with our homebounds. We meet at 1:00 on the first Tuesday of each month in room 110 for our assignments.
