it will rain today
good is greater than evil truth trumps lies life does not end with death generosity is its own reward kinds words extinguish anger forgiveness eliminates sin
it will rain today
we do not know anything it is all a guess unless you possess faith.

Your gift will help to keep our music ministry thriving.

Visitation Team-

The first Tuesday of each month a group gathers to go visit our homebound members. We divide up the names and go take a word of cheer to those whose lives have considerably slowed down. They look forward to seeing their monthly visitors. We need more visitors! To be a part of this group takes a commitment of about an hour each month. Please come and share your love with our homebounds. We meet at 1:00 on the first Tuesday of each month in room 110 for our assignments.

Be An Evangelist

There are many reasons why people come to church - some are good, some not so good. We should come to church to enrich our relationship with Christ. There are those who know this, it's just that they don't think about it much. That's where you come in. Most people get started in church or return to church because a friend made an invitation. Ask someone to join you in worship. Be an evangelist for Christ. It won't hurt and it will probably help - you, them and the church.

You are invited to attend the Retirement Reception for
